

618.3

O-75

Kalinovska I.V., Lisova K.M., Yuzko O.M., Tokar P.Y. Features of genital infections course in pregnant women. Chernivtsi: Bukovynian State Medical University, 2021. 110 p.

This manual discusses the main genital infections, features of pathogens, pathogenetic links, typical clinical signs of disease, pathognomonic changes of the placenta, the consequences of infection of the fetus. Attention is also focused on the main areas of diagnosis and treatment of ingenious infections.

The educational publication is designed for students of medical faculties of higher medical educational institutions of III-IV levels of accreditation, doctors- interns and doctors-students.

Contents

Introduction	3
Modem aspects of genital infections development in pregnant women	4
Syphilis	38
Gonorrhea	50
Trichomoniasis	57
Chlamidiosis	62
Vaginal candidosis	74
Bacterial vaginosis	84
Mycoplasmosis	88
Herpetic infection	95
References	104